

|                                         |  |                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |    |
|-----------------------------------------|--|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| STATEMASS                    |  | COUNTYBRISTOL                | TOWN OR VICINITYSEEKONKCounty St.                                                                                                                                                     | 35 |
| INDEX NUMBERMASS, 3-SEKO, 2- |  | MONUMENTSYLVANUS MARTIN BARN |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |    |
| REPRESENTED INNEGATIVE FILE         |  | H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.MASS-234  | History -Built c.1760 bySylvanus Martin, father ofLt. Gov. Martin. Destroyed byhurricane Sept. 21, 1938.Description -1-story and lofts; frame,shingles; pitch roof. |    |
| PUBLISHEDPHOTOGRAPHS                |  |                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |    |
| PUBLISHEDDRAWINGS                   |  |                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |    |
| FN. 86                           |  |                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |    |
| 670 6-8369                              |  | HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY ✓    |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |    |

Philip Martineau. 212 South St., Jamaica Plain.
Nov. 8, 1938.